

21 Winter 2013 MG Class Interns Graduate

16 Interns Attend Spring-themed Ceremony May 20, 2014

Twenty-one Interns are now certified Master Gardeners following the Winter 2013 class graduation on May 20, 2014. Sixteen Interns along with about 30 Master Gardener volunteers and Intern guests attended the event at the Lamb of God Lutheran Church on County Line Road.

Newly certified Master Gardeners are Beth Agee, Diana Brooks, Kathleen Bucher, Mary Conrad, George Darling, Carolyn Dobson, Della Evans, Linda Gerth, Janice Hunter, Karen Jonson, Rhonda Johnston, Sue Khoury, Carla Knight, Susan Ledbetter, Pamela Marshall, Karen McLean, Cindy Musselwhite, Shelby Orlando, Charlie Petty, Blenda Prosser and Debbie Severn.

The graduates received their certificates from TriCounty Master Gardener Program Coordinator and Regional Extension Agent Ken Creel and they received their badges from TriCounty Master Gardener Program Class Coordinator Alice Lawler.

The TriCounty Master Gardener Program Graduation Committee coordinated the event including the decorations and the meal. Committee members in attendance included: Patricia Frey, Joni Gruber and Donna McMillan from Limestone County and Alice Brigman, Mary Howe, Tom Simpson and myself from Madison County. Graduates were able to take home fresh cut flowers provided by Patricia and potted plants provided by Tom.

Twenty-one interns from the Winter 2013 TriCounty Master Gardener Class graduated, with 16 attending the ceremony on May 20, 2014. Also shown are Regional Extension Agent Ken Creel, who oversees the TriCounty Master Gardener Program, and Master Gardener Alice Lawler, who is the TriCounty class coordinator.

These volunteers from Limestone and Madison counties came early to decorate and organize the meal prior to the graduation ceremonies.

Spring flowers were among the decorations around the dining room, part of Graduation ommittee's work prior to the guests arriving.
